A COURSE THAT WILL DEFINE YOUR TRENT EXPERIENCE:

Add UNIV100H to your timetable this fall

World-class professors and the opportunity to get to know your peers while exploring your interests and passions in a close-knit class of just 20 students – just some of the reasons why you will want to add UNIV1000H: Academic Foundations for Success, one of Trent's most engaging courses, to your timetable this fall. Open to all first-year students, this course counts as credit toward any Trent degree.

Our Academic Advising team is here to assist! Contact us any time, or book a virtual appointment with one of our advisors.

GET READY FOR SEPTEMBER

Supports & Services

As a Trent student, you have a multitude of supports and services available to you right on campus, and through your College, to help you make the most of your university experience. You can also reach out to Student Affairs in Peterborough and Durham with any questions or concerns.

Get Oriented to Trent

Get a jump start on fall. Register for a virtual Summer Orientation session to learn more about your campus, as well as the services and resources available, or join our 12week Summer Connect program to meet other incoming students and connect with your Orientation Leaders.

Our Guide to a Safe In-Person Fall

We are looking forward to welcoming new students, like you, to our campuses in September as we plan for a full return to in-person learning. Learn more about our plans, including a new vaccine requirement for all students living in residence, by reviewing our updated Trent Forward Plan.

CHALLENGE THE WAY YOU THINK

, as a top scholar, you can enjoy many benefits studying and living on campus at Trent University this fall. Here are the top 3:

First choice of room

Part of the excitement of beginning your Trent journey is choosing your room. As a top scholar, you get the advantage of choosing your room first, before general room selection opens.

Your spot in our residence is guaranteed

Apply to residence, pay your deposit by June 1 and we'll save you a room. Even if you are still considering your housing options for fall, it's a great idea to apply now and reserve your spot.

Classes, supports, and life-long friends – all here

This fall, when we are together in person living on campus means everything is right here – classes and labs, delicious food options, academic supports and collegiate community, all at your doorstep.
